BJE's Ivrit B'Kulam Continues All Spring

Because of popular demand, Ivrit B'Kulam, Hebrew language Ulpan classes at the Katz JCC, sponsored by the Board of Jewish Education, will now continue through mid-June.

Morah Iris Harari, the popular Hebrew teacher who has led three groups of learners from last fall until the present time was approached by her students with a request to "keep going."

Says Barbara Lenett, BJE vice president for adult education, "This is exactly what the BJE wants from our adult learning community. You tell us what you want and we'll try to provide it. We are delighted to keep these various levels of classes going for the spring semester."

Please call Linda Kulp at 822-1854 at the BJE if you want more information about Beginner classes, Beginner Advanced classes and/or Intermediate Level classes. All are available for additional students to join in if students can meet the criteria for spring semester joining.

Summer housing needed for Israeli Camp By The Sea staff

In 2009, the Milton & Betty Katz JCC will welcome six Israeli counselors from Margate's sister community Arad/Tamar to work at Camp By The Sea.

In the months of June, July and August, these specialists, ages 20-23, teach campers the history and culture of Israel through stories, games, songs, dance and crafts.

The JCC is now recruiting host families to house one of these shlichim (emissaries) for 2-4 week intervals during the summer. Camp Director Josh Cutler said of the program "This is an amazing opportunity to bond and create lifelong friendships with these dynamic individuals and grow closer to Israel. This is something small one can do to help build the bridge between our two communities and cultures."

For more information, call

Cutler at 822-1167 ext. 138 or email Camp@jccatlantic.org.

Friendly Telephone Calls

For anyone who could use a friend to check in on them, the volunteers at CONTACT Cape-Atlantic offer daily phone calls to say hello and check that all is well. CONTACT calls are free and confidential. Our volunteers are eager to help the disabled, elderly, and isolated citizens of Atlantic County and Cape May County who want to continue living independently.

If you are interested in receiving CONTACT calls, or if you know someone who might be, contact Mike Nees at (609) 823-0762 (Atlantic County) or (609) 463-4564 (Cape May County).

Contact Cape-Atlantic is a non-profit organization and a United Way partner agency.

Clothing Drive

Atlantic Adult Day Health Care needs clothing for people who are physically and mentally challenged. We are looking for all types of clothing in larger sizes.

Please drop off all donations at 331 Tilton Road, Northfield, NJ Contact Beth at (609) 383-3313 or e-mail bmclaughlin@atlanticadult.com with any questions or concerns.

Musical Friday Night Services at Beth Judah

Friday nights at Congregation Beth Judah now include Beth Judah Alive! service. Beth Judah Alive! is a fully instrumental Friday night service.

TEMPLE EMETH SHALOM Rabbi Gordon Geller confirmed Hayden Carlton and Daniel Goldfarb at Shavuot Sabbath Service, May 29, 2009.

"These services are filled with lots of ruach (spirit) and will be uplifting. The music adds a special dimension to the traditional service, while maintaining the beauty of Shabbat," said Rabbi Aaron Gaber.

The final date for Beth Judah Alive! is June 19. Music will include traditional melodies and modern interpretations of Jewish music. For more information, call 822-7116.
