For more than two decades, the Henrietta Harris and Sadie Bernstine Fund has been awarding college scholarships to Atlantic City High School graduates of the Jewish faith. These excellence-in-scholarship awards are based on need, scholastic achievement and involvement in Jewish activities. To date, more than $2,000,000 has been awarded.

This year's recipients, all from Margate, are: Taylor Shane Levine daughter of Steven and Sindy; Rachael Florence Shanker, daughter of Arthur and Laura and Samantha Emily Steiner, daughter of Jerry and Bonnie.

Serving on the selection committee were: Harvey Elfman, of Cherry Hill, co-trustee; Robert Seltzer, Executive Vice President, Jewish Federation of Atlantic and Cape May Counties, and Rose Strauss-Vender of Margate. Aboard advising the committee were Darlene E. Lathan, guidance department of A. C. High School and Karolyn Kilpatrick, co-trustee, Wachovia Bank.

Applications for 2010 can be obtained from – and returned to – the A. C. High School guidance dept. Completed applications must be submitted no later than April 18, 2010 to be eligible.

Annual Rabbi Hahn Memorial Lecture

The Hahn family and the Friends of the Rabbi Sanford Hahn Memorial Lecture cordially invite the community to an evening with Rabbi Richard Steinbrink, a long-time friend of Rabbi Hahn to be held at Temple Beth Shalom, 45th and Brigantine Avenue on Friday, July 10, at 8 p.m.

Rabbi Steinbrink is prominent in the Philadelphia region as a teacher and hospital chaplain after a long career as a pulpit rabbi. Rabbi Steinbrink has taught the Reform movement's conversion class for over a decade.

Like Rabbi Hahn, he shares a dedication to the health of the Jewish community and the community at large. He is active in numerous charitable and advocacy activities and will help us celebrate and remember the issues that Rabbi Hahn held dear.

Refreshments will follow the Shabbat service and the talk. Please RSVP by July 7 by calling the office at 266-0403.

Boycott of Trader Joe's Israel products fizzles

A call for a boycott of Israeli products sold at Trader Joe's has backfired.

Organizers of the "Don't Buy into Apartheid Day," also known as "Day of Deshelling Israeli Products," sent a letter to Trader Joe's asking them not to sell Israeli products, such as hummus and couscous, in their stores on June 20. The letter also asked members of the boycott group to hand out anti-Israel leaflets in front of Trader Joe's stores across the United States.

The Los Angeles Jewish Journal reported that the demonstrations failed to take place, and that Israel supporters visited the stores and insisted on buying Israeli products.
