

▲ Community

from Page 8

Once the exclusive domain of ultra-religious male students of Judaism, the ancient philosophy of Kabbalah has found a resurgence in recent years. This film traces Kabbalah from its ancient roots to its modern-day incarnation.

The event is free and open to the entire community. Please RSVP to Josh Cutler, JCC program director at 822-1167 ext. 138 or email JCutler@jccatlantic.org.

Why Chanukah?

A class on the textual origins of Chanukah will be taught by Rabbi Jeffrey Lipschultz of Beth Judah Temple of Wildwood at the temple, Spencer and Pacific Avenues, on Wednesday, Dec. 9 at 6:30 p.m.

The class will offer an opportunity to learn everything you've wanted to know about Chanukah. Everyone is welcome to attend. For information call the office at 522-7541.

Golda Meir Hadassah Chanukah Meeting

Golda Meir Hadassah will present a special Chanukah meeting and mini luncheon for $3.00 on Wednesday, Dec. 16, at 11:30 a.m., at Beth El Synagogue, 500 N. Jerome Ave. in Margate. Latkes will be served and there will be menorahs and candies on each table, in the tradition of the holiday.

Cantor Debrah Stern will light the candles and say Chanukah prayers. Several of our members will read the history of Chanukah. It is suggested that a toy, with a value of $1.00 to $5.00, for children from infancy to eleven years of age, be contributed, in the holiday spirit.

Reservations are a must. Please call Ruth Kleiner at 822-5370.

All guests are welcome.

Chanukah Celebration

Brith Sholom Seashore Lodge will be holding its annual Chanukah Celebration at Sharon Zeng's Restaurant on Dec. 17.

College Students Discuss Experiences

A panel of college students will discuss the experiences of Jewish students at respective schools at Beth El Synagogue on Friday, Dec. 18th during the 7:30 p.m. service. Everyone is invited to attend. For more information call 823-2725.

Volunteers Needed December 25 at Seashore Gardens Living Center

Galloway Township, NJ – Volunteers

are needed at Seashore Gardens Living Center, a nonprofit healthcare organization, on December 25 between 12 p.m. to 6 p.m. to participate in the "Lowell Gluck Holiday Volunteer Program," named in memory of longtime board member, Lowell Gluck. Each year on Christmas Day, individuals are needed to volunteer at meal times, in the gift shop, during recreation programs, and at the front desk. With the support of community volunteers, Seashore Gardens Living Center's staff members are able to have the day off to celebrate the holiday. Individuals interested in volunteering can contact Eve Kleiner, Holiday Volunteer Coordinator at (609) 641-3300 or Missy Rundio, Director of Recreation and Volunteers at (609) 748-4407. Seashore Gardens Living Center is located at 22 W. Jimmie Leeds Road, Galloway Township.

"Year after year on Christmas Day it is great to see many of the same friends volunteering; however, we are always excited to have new volunteers join us volunteering in various areas of the Living Center. Families and community members who donate their time on Christmas Day find it a meaningful and gratifying way to give back to the elderly members of the community. In addition, the volunteers are greatly appreciated by our employees who work diligently to provide compassionate and quality health care to the older adults in our community. With the volunteers working that day, many employees are able to spend the holidays with their families with the peace of mind knowing that the residents are being cared for by friends of Seashore Gardens Living Center." states Martin H. Klein, President and CEO.

Seashore Gardens Living Center offers an assisted living residence, long term nursing care, an Alzheimer's residence and short-term sub-acute rehabilitation services. For more information about Seashore Gardens Living Center, please call (609) 404-4848 or visit www.seashoregardens.org.

New Years at Temple Emeth Shalom

Join us at Temple Emeth Shalom in celebrating the New Year 2010 at a gala celebration at the Temple, 8501 Ventnor Ave., Margate, on Thursday, December 31st from 9 p.m. to ? All are welcome to enjoy dancing to the music of Jim Boney and his ensemble. Hors d'oeuvres from 9 p.m. to 10 p.m. followed by delicious food and desserts. $35 per person. BYOB. Make checks payable to Temple Emeth Shalom and mail to Carol Myerowitz, 7046 Calvert Ave., Ventnor, N.J. 08406, or call Betty at 822-3940.

Golda Meir Hadassah Luncheon

Enjoying the Hadassah luncheon are: Florence Silverman, Anita Weiss, Jeanne Sutow, Dave Guralnik & Louise Zarin.

Nate Heir, Dave Guralnik, Dr. William Silverman, Dr. Howard Barsky, & Shirley Barsky. Standing is Esther Perkins.

Selling cards for Hadassah are: Florence Gubernik & Shirley Orliner.

Speaker, Rabbi Aaron Krauss.

Photos by Joyce Bank